Reflection by Fr Aleki Piula

The Ascension of the Lord

Today we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord Jesus Christ into Heaven after his promising to send the Holy Spirit to the Apostles as the source of divine power to command them to bear witness to Jesus throughout their lives and go out to preaching the Good News to the whole world. All readings today describe the Ascension of the Lord Jesus into heavenly glory and waiting for the promising of the coming of the Holy Spirit to the Apostles. And the ascension of Jesus is still with us because it is Jesus' promise, saying, 'I am with you always; yes, to the end of time' (Matthew 28:20). So, Jesus is always with us at all times and in all places and releasing a new energy of the Holy Spirit to the earth. Hence, on this day we celebrate the glorification of Jesus when the Father raised him up in glory. Jesus wants us to share in his glory.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles we hear of the ascension of Jesus into heaven, and of his promise to send the Holy Spirit to his disciples

Psalm 47 suggests that the Ascension of the Risen Lord mount his throne in glory.

In the Second reading from the letter of saint Paul to the Ephesians, here Paul sets out the meaning of the ascension: God raised Jesus above all earthly powers, and made him head of the Church and Lord of Creation.

*Welcome - Malo e lelei - Bula Vinaka - Talofa lava - Mabuhay - Bienvenue
Nei hou ma - Anneunghaseyo - Ayu Bowan - Willkommen - Welkom Haere mai! Nau mai! Whakatau mai!*

And He remain with us in the life-giving Holy Spirit, assuring us that one day we too will be ascending to Heavenly glory, and provided it with His grace so we live out our faith in Him with the mission loving service that He entrusts to us.

In today's Gospel, before ascending into heaven, Jesus promises to send the Holy Spirit to his disciples. It consists of the end of the Gospel of Luke which contains Luke's first account of the Ascension, which is here presented as occurring on Easter Sunday. The risen Lord shows the apostles how the Scriptures had foretold that the Christ would suffer and rise again. Jesus also gives them a mission to proclaim repentance and forgiveness of sins and promises to send the Holy Spirit to them. They return in joy to Jerusalem to await the Spirit. Here in Luke's Gospel has shown that 'the time of Israel' has yielded to 'the time of Christ'. Now, 'the time of Christ' is to yield to 'the time of the Church'. Hence, the word of salvation will go forth from Jerusalem to the ends of the earth. He will tell us about that in his book of the Acts of the Apostles. 'The Ascension is seen as the culmination of Jesus' life and the start of the Church's mission. The Resurrection and Ascension of Jesu open all our stories to not the good ending but to the glorious ending. This feast reminds us that Jesus, ascension shows us the goal of our earthly journey and destiny is heaven is an eternal dimension to our lives, let us live in the hope

Sacramental Programme

I was pleased to see four children at the meeting last Sunday. The classes are now up and running and I am hopeful that we will see all of the group who began the class last year wanting to complete the preparation for the Sacraments of Reconciliation, Confirmation and First Holy Communion. I am happy to welcome any new children. It is easy to enrol – you can do this on the parish website or turn up and I will give you a form to fill in.

We meet every Sunday between the Masses starting at 9.15 am

Please let your family and friends who might not see this newsletter know.

Progress report on the Auckland diocesan synodal process

Submissions opened on 21 October 2021, closed on 11 May 2022

- Approximately 500 submissions were received
- About 40 % were from individuals
- Groups varied in size from 3 to 58, ages from 6-92
- Submissions were received from
 - Parishes | 23 (urban and rural) (including Us)
 - Ethnic communities | 5 Pacific and Asian Lay associations | 9 Religious congregations | 6 Schools 4 Primary and secondary
- The young, school communities, Māori, marginalised present but not strong

Submitters said about the process;

- What a privilege, the Church cares about my thoughts.
- I have been waiting for this moment since Vatican II.
- Thank-you for listening.
- Our group thoroughly enjoyed the session.
- We are going to meet to try to develop concrete actions from our conversation.
- We shared, expressed, listened, discussed, agreed and disagreed. We walked together in community, with participation, on a mission.
- It will be white-washed by the diocese. What we need to say will not go to NZCBC or Vatican.

Five main themes or threads emerged from the submissions: The first was: "We heard a call that the Church be more welcoming of diversity. Diversity of age, ethnicity, sexual orientation, marriage status and theological perspective."

(There will be further reports in subsequent bulletins.)

The Maria Assumta conference of St Vincent de Paul thanks parishioners for your ongoing support. Tinned foods (especially vegetables), baking goods and bathroom products are in short supply at the moment. If you need support, or a food parcel, please contact Charles (022 0242 753). Food donations can be left in the basket at the back of the church before Mass on Sundays or you can contact one of us below and we will arrange to collect them from you.

Please consider becoming a member of our conference. We really need more people to assist with food parcels and bread deliveries as well as coming to help out at our Vinnies Charity shops. The shops need lots of volunteers and helpers – even for an hour or two once a week would be wonderful. Our oldest volunteer is 87 and our youngest is 14! If you can, please join our friendly team at either Beach Haven or Glenfield. Volunteering can be so rewarding! Contact Janet on 022-356-3811 or Janetlee.vinnies@gmail.com

Clothing and household items can be donated at the Ellice Road or Beach Haven shops during shop hours. If you wish to assist us more, or if you know of someone needing assistance, please contact either Chris (020 4139 5170), Charles (022 0242 753), or the Beach Haven shop (482 3017).
